To Whom It May Concern,

We started working with D.I.B earlier this year after our architect who had used them on other building projects suggested them to us. I dealt with Sam who was very good and knew exactly what he was talking about and delivered on what he had promised. The technicians Mick and Jason were quite good and also had a good grasp of what needed to be done. The scheduling of the job worked well and the whole team just got on with the job. I would be happy to recommend them to others.

Best regards,
